

The Nonprofit Partnership

in association with The Erie Community Foundation invites you to join us for a full-day public policy event

Different Perspectives

Common Interests

A Forum to Bring Together Nonprofits, Government, and Philanthropy

Wednesday, April 7, 2010 – 8:30 am – 3:00 pm

Ambassador Conference Center, 7794 Peach Street, Erie, PA

This public policy forum connects nonprofits, elected officials, and the philanthropic sector to reflect on and strategize about the challenges that face us in a time of high need and low revenue.

Keynote Address by

Steve Gunderson

President,
Council on Foundations

Participants include:

US Representative Kathy Dahlkemper
PA State Senators Jane Earll and Mary Jo White
PA State Representatives John Evans, Flo Fabrizio, Pat Harkins, John Hornaman and Curtis Sonney
Erie County Executive Barry Grossman
Erie Mayor Joe Sinnott
Tony Ross, President, United Way of PA
Sharon Ward, Executive Director, PA Budget and Policy Center

To generate a meaningful dialogue and an effective strategy, we encourage the attendance of regional nonprofit leaders, foundation staff and Trustees, elected officials and managers at all levels of government, civic leaders, and advocates.

RSVP by April 2 to (814) 454-8800 x 1 or tnp@thenonprofitpartnership.org

